AWRA

Community, Conversation, Connections

Individuals traveling from outside of the United States wishing to attend AWRA's 2017 Spring Specialty Conference on Connecting the Dots....The Emerging Science of Aquatic System Connectivity, May 1 – 3, 2017, Snowbird, Utah, USA may request a Letter of Invitation to the conference.

Information and instructions on requesting a Letter of Invitation to the above AWRA Spring Specialty Conference are contained herein.

General Information/Guidelines

Eligible applicants

Individuals requesting a Letter of Invitation to the conference must be:

- A member of the water resources profession (applicants should be prepared to provide evidence of their participation in the profession).
- Prepared to register for the conference for which they are requesting an Invitation. Rates are determined by the date you register, not the date you request a Letter of Invitation. Pre-registration is encouraged. To register, visit: www.awra.org. You may also register at the conference.

Individuals do not have to be a member of the Association to request a Letter of Invitation.

Purpose and Content of the Letter of Invitation

Letters of Invitation to the conference may be issued to validate your intent to participate in the conference. Such letters may be used to support an individual's request for company or governmental clearance to attend the conference.

A Letter of Invitation issued by AWRA will:

- Be addressed directly to the individual requesting the invitation
- Include the name, date, and location of the conference
- Indicate the individual's responsibility for all expenses related to his/her participation in the conference (including registration, travel and accommodations)
- Be signed by an authorized AWRA representative

Processing Fee

A non-refundable processing fee of $100 will be assessed for each Letter of Invitation request and must be paid when the request is made.
