Middleburg, VA, Jan 11 – The American Water Resources Association (AWRA) is pleased to announce that the Call for Nominations to serve on the 2011 AWRA Board of Directors (terms that begin January 1, 2011) is now open. AWRA is seeking nominations for the President-Elect and two Director positions. More information and a nomination form are available here.

AWRA seeks individuals who are strategic thinkers, and who have demonstrated a commitment to multidisciplinary management of water resources. To ensure the best possible decision making environment, importance will be given to the diversity of Board members in areas such as race, gender, age, discipline, and employer.

The volunteer leaders who comprise the AWRA Board of Directors have a number of responsibilities including: addressing the science, technology, management, development, and planning of water resources; disseminating technical knowledge through publications, meetings, and other means; acting upon nominations for Honorary and Fellow membership, and making special awards. In addition, it directs the investment and care of the future of the Association, makes appropriations for specific purposes, manages the affairs of the Association in accordance with the Bylaws, and generally directs the business of the Association. Candidates for elected positions will be sent a copy of the AWRA “Statement of Individual Board Member Responsibilities” and must agree to them.

For brief bios and more information about AWRA’s history, mission, bylaws and the Board of Directors, go to AWRA’s homepage (<http://www.awra.org>) and click on the “About Us” tab.

If you would like to nominate an individual or yourself for one of these positions, please complete the 2010 AWRA Board of Directors Nomination Form and submit it no later than March 22, 2010, to Jane O. Rowan, Chairperson, Awards/Nominations Committee, American Water Resources Association, PO Box 1626, Middleburg, VA 20118-1626.

AWRA is the premier non-governmental organization dedicated to the advancement of multidisciplinary water resources management and research. For over 40 years, AWRA has provided a forum for water resources conservation and networking. AWRA has members in every state and in over 50 nations. More information at: <http://www.awra.org>.
